The Wonder of the Resurrection

When have you experienced wonder?

Wonder: a feeling of surprise mingled with admiration, caused by something beautiful, unexpected, unfamiliar, or inexplicable.

Wonder is wonderful

Wonder is _____

Wonder is good

Wonder _____ the work of God

It is wonderful because it is _____.

Go and see, then go and tell.

“Don’t take my word for it, go see for yourself!”

The Reliability of the Story

Early witnesses

Abundant _____

Multiple attestations

Failed counternarrative

_____ lives

The wonder of the _____ leads us to worship.

Mary and Mary fall at his feet.

The _____ at the great commission.

“They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him.” Matthew 28:9

Matthew 28:16-20

Jesus is the King of God's kingdom.

Building God's kingdom is the mission Jesus gives to all who worship him.

You cannot _____ Jesus without _____ him in his kingdom building mission.

We wonder at the resurrection because it is real and true.

Our _____ draws us to worship Jesus, our Lord and King.

The joy of worship fuels our _____ in Jesus' kingdom mission.

YOUR MOVE

Wonder doesn't have to be spontaneous or unexpected, it can become familiar and intentional.

We develop lives of wonder by cultivating an "awe-infused curiosity" at the world around us.

How will you make wonder part of your life this week?
